3. Make provisions for drawings for threesomes or foursomes
4. Notify all schools of the date, time, and place.
5. Prepare record blanks and scorecards in advance

B. Tournament Procedure

1. Eighteen holes to be played. If circumstances require less holes, it should be agreed upon by the coaches. Weather may dictate less and timing may not allow for a makeup.
2. Sectional qualifiers are strictly individual
3. Summer rules are to be played whenever possible when winter rules are to be played. USGA recommends mark, pick, clean, and place. Ball can be moved six inches and no nearer the hole. Under no circumstances can a putt be conceded.
4. All infractions of rules should be reported immediately to the Chairperson
5. In case rule interpretation is necessary, ruling is to be made by the Club Pro if he is available, otherwise by the rules committee appointed by the chairman.
6. If possible no members of the same team may play on, or with the same foursome

C. CCAA League Tournament Procedures:

1. Make a written report to the Secretary of the CCAA Committee showing the final results of the Tournament-- schools with score, also low individual score. This report should be made within two days.

2. If there are any expenses connected with the Tournament, the Chairman should send a written report to the CCAA Treasurer using the report sheets provided by the Treasurer.
 3. A written report of the results of the Tournament should be sent to newspapers of the counties and radio stations.
 4. A letter of appreciation for the use of the Golf Course should be sent to the Pro and/or Club President.
- D. CCAA
1. CCAA has a Sectional qualifier that is based on individual play; no team records are kept.
